EMIT is a registered 501(c) (3) organization

EMIT is a member of and subscribes to the guidelines of the following responsible giving organizations:

Transforming nations

by developing leaders

Impacting communities in

17 Countries

Your support will help us change remote, forgotten communities.

Help us raise up Godly leaders in the darkest corners of Africa.

TRANSFORM NATIONS

A network of leaders reaching into the remotest areas of Africa.

We infiltrate areas where conventional institutions have no access or impact with programs that challenge and change the influencers of Africa.

EMIT believes that Africa must be the creator of her future. By training leaders, we serve communities in all spheres of society — our programs impact leaders from a grassroots level to CEO's and high-ranking government officials. These leaders rise above their circumstances; with renewed responsibility, they bring hope and skills to the communities they serve.

This is why we exist - to transform communities. Impoverished, suffering societies become testimonies of victory and prosperity. The EMIT strategy is unique, and it works!

EMIT trains leaders who then take the material home to train at least ten other leaders in their communities and spheres of influence. In this way, EMIT's training is delivered to the remotest parts of the continent. We infiltrate areas where conventional institutions have no access or impact with programs that challenge and change the influencers of Africa.

Each EMIT leader trains another 10

The essence of leadership is to make a difference in your sphere of influence.

O O Isaac

She brings hope to families torn apart by alcoholism, drug abuse, femicide, and child abuse.

KAREN FERIS - NAMIBIA

Since becoming an EMIT leader, Karen founded a family-centre where she tirelessly serves her community that is ravaged by these atrocities.

A lonely child's journey to become a top-level advisor.

DR. ELVIS JOSEPH - ZIMBABWE

Elvis grew up questioning his purpose for existence. His EMIT training inspired a love of learning, and he since completed a PhD. He fulfils his calling by offering Godly guidance to business-people and politicians.

An EMIT leader is changing the lives of young genocide survivors

DR. BUNINI GAHUNGU PROTAIS - RWANDA

For the past 20 years, EMIT has helped heal the relationships of fearful, distrusting leaders. One such success is Dr Bunini. He cares for street-children, training them to become contributing members of society.

SUCCESS STORIES

Examples of EMIT leaders who are changing their communities.

If you are planning for a year, sow rice;
if you are planning for a decade, plant trees;
if you are planning for a lifetime, educate people.

Chinese proverb

Give leaders the opportunity to create change for a lifetime.

As Christians we have an enormous responsibility to help solve the problems of the less fortunate (1 John 3 v 17). Solving Africa's problems on her behalf is not the answer. Africa has resources, intellectual capacity and a desire to succeed. Africa needs an investment in the development of her people to create a prosperous future.
